

Stuart Bamberger

Assistant Case Manager

Location: Hayling Island, Hampshire

Skills & Attributes:

- Extensive experience working with adults and children with complex needs in a variety of settings and contexts. Has worked with clients who have experienced (not exclusively) mild, moderate and severe brain injury, neurological disorders, spinal injuries, amputation, cerebral palsy, sensory impairments, vestibular impairments, complex orthopaedic and learning disabilities
- Works proactively, positively and flexibly with clients, carers, families, therapy teams to achieve desired outcomes
- Utilises reflection, clinical and line management supervision to consistently improve practice.
- Experienced in the management and supervision of support staff
- Stuart has a strong work ethic, is responsive, trustworthy and takes pride in providing the most effective and appropriate service to clients

Employment:

COOCI Associates 2010 to present – Assistant Case Manager

- Supporting clients, both adults and children, with complex disability
- Co-ordination of multidisciplinary teams
- Supporting clients and families in the following: accommodation adaptations; equipment; setting up and managing community care teams; holiday arrangements; vehicle procurement; benefit applications; educational appeals; returning to work
- Liaison with professionals, including, solicitors, financial deputies, therapists and clinicians, as appropriate, on the client's behalf

Team Brain Injury Support 2009 – 2015 Support Worker

- Providing support to clients with brain injury
- Working closely with therapy teams and case managers in delivering a bespoke plan of care to clients

Qualifications and Training:

- Mandatory Training
- Care Certificate Training
- First Aid

Interests and Hobbies:

- Football (did play but now watch)
- A variety of sports, squash, sailing, wind surfing, paddle boarding
- Running

© COOCI Associates Ltd

Not to be reproduced without permission